REMINDER* SAVE THE DATE!!! Jubilee 2025 – Pilgrims of Hope – December 29, 2024

The Jubilee Year 2025 will begin with the opening of the Holy Door of St. Peter’s Basilica on Christmas Eve, December 24, 2024. On December 29th, the Holy Door of the Archbasilica of St. John Lateran, the Cathedral of Rome, will also be opened by the Holy Father. On this same day, every Cathedral and co-Cathedral worldwide will celebrate a special Mass, presided over by the local Bishop, to mark the beginning of the Jubilee.

To mark this significant event, Archbishop Albert LeGatt, D.D. will celebrate Mass on December 29th, 2024, at 3:00 p.m. at the Saint Boniface Cathedral. All are invited to join in the opening of the Jubilee Year.

Save the date!

As Pope Francis has said, “The Jubilee Year is a time of grace and mercy, a moment of renewal for the entire Church, and a call to walk together as pilgrims of hope.”

Let us journey together in faith and joy as we open our hearts to the grace of this holy year.

NEW* “TEACH US TO PRAY” – Document in Preparation of Jubilee 2025

A Brief Introduction - As we move closer to the Jubilee of 2025, Pope Francis wants 2024 to be dedicated to prayer. Thus, he is inviting the whole Church to a time of intense commitment in preparation for the Opening of the Holy Door at St. Peter’s in Rome, on December 24.

The Jubilee will involve not only the city of Rome, but will extend far beyond, as God’s mercy is proclaimed to the whole world, thus becoming a great opportunity for evangelization. As Christians, we are invited to bear witness as authentic “Pilgrims of Hope” walking toward the Lord, who opens his merciful and forgiving arms to us, as well as to our brothers and sisters who are still waiting for the Gospel to be proclaimed to them.

Prepared by the Vatican’s Dicastery for Evangelization, “Teach Us to Pray”, is a resource aide, inspired by the magisterium of Pope Francis, intended to be used by the faithful during this time of preparation for the opening of the Holy

Door. It is an invitation to intensify prayer as a personal dialogue with God.

To read Teach Us to Pray, please click here.

To help us all prepare for Jubilee 2025, the Weekly News Bulletin will be offering tips drawn from Teach Us to Pray. This week, we focus on The Eucharist...

To live this great mystery to the full, we need the right inclination and disposition of heart and mind every time we approach the Eucharist. Small and large daily decisions help Christians to be more aware of what is celebrated during the Mass, and consequently, greater awareness and participation at the Eucharistic table will help them to grow, making them an ever more credible and authentic witness, becoming more incisively: "salt of the earth and light of the world" (Mt 5:13-16). First of all, let's prepare ourselves for Holy Mass by reading in advance the passages from the Word of God that will be proclaimed, and stopping for a few minutes before the tabernacle to reflect.

When Mass begins, let us make our sign of the cross with reverence. We are invited to listen attentively to the Word of God. Let us pray the Our Father, the prayer Jesus taught us, with awareness and reverence. And when we receive his body and blood, let's welcome Our Lord with an open heart. With the final greeting, let's be aware of our call to be credible witnesses of Christ in the world. Finally, before leaving the church, let's take a moment to thank the Lord for the gift we have received with Holy Communion.

SUGGESTED WORDING FOR A PARISH BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENT:

Reconciliation Education 4 Seasons of Reconciliation

REMINDER* 4 Seasons of Reconciliation Online Course – Many Spots Still Available!

Knowing more about Indigenous realities, both past and present is a vital step in entering into meaningful and just relationships with the Indigenous, thus ensuring our future together will be one where justice and the dignity of all are truly lived out. To help Catholics in our diocese, the Archdiocese of St.

Boniface is offering the faithful the opportunity to take the 4 Seasons of Reconciliation online course. This course, developed by Productions Cazabon in collaboration with the First Nations University in Regina and the Oblate Fathers, allows individuals to watch compelling videos and read testimonials and other material about the history, challenges and hopes of the Indigenous in Canada, touching on many of the calls to action of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission. All told, the course takes about three hours to complete, but anyone can do it at their own pace. The Archdiocese still has about thirty slots, available on a first come, first serve basis. To more information or to register for the course, contact Daniel Bahuaud at 204-594-0277 or at communications@archsaintboniface.ca

The Grief Support Ministry at the Parish of St. Timothy invite you to a special Loss and Grief presentation at the Parish of St. Timothy, 135 John Forsyth Road, Winnipeg. Grief - We all experience it. So, what do we do with it? Loss of a loved one, a job, a relationship, bad decisions... how do we feel if we live through such experiences? As we live grief, do we belabour loss, do we hold onto things that are no longer there or which we no longer can control? Is there a healthy way to grieve? In general, what do we do with grief? Father Eric Giddens, Pastor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish, will be giving a workshop on grief and what we do with it. Fr. Eric will offer a biblical and Catholic faith grounded perspective on grief and loss, perhaps a perspective that will be very new to you. Fr. Eric will get you thinking, laughing, maybe even crying. Regardless, you will be glad you had the chance to hear him! Join us at the Parish of St Timothy, 135 John Forsyth Road, Winnipeg, on Saturday, November 30 from 9:30 – 11:30 am in the parish hall. Doors open at 9:15 am. Refreshments available upon arrival. Free-will offering accepted. Everyone is welcome!

REMINDER* Cozy Strategy Game "Sainthood" Officially Launches on Steam and Xbox!

Award-winning Winnipeg filmmaker Bisong Taiwo invites players to embark on a spiritual journey with the official release of Sainthood, a cozy, Catholic-themed strategy game steeped in African folklore. Available now on Steam and Xbox, Sainthood places players in the role of a nun stranded on an enigmatic island with only 33 days to fulfill her journey toward serving her community and growing her faith. With the community already rallying around the game's themes of faith and kindness, Sainthood has received enthusiastic early feedback.

"Sainthood has been a labor of love," said Taiwo, "and I'm incredibly moved by the support we've received from early players. We wanted to create a game where players focus on serving others, which feels rare in gaming today. Seeing it resonate with players around the world is inspiring."

In Sainthood, navigate a beautifully illustrated miniature-like grid representing the island which moves through beautiful seasons and day/night cycles. Immerse yourself in a relaxing, meditative world. Find and free the Angel Spirits known as 'Ehi' who will assist you with building upgrades. But be careful, when night descends, mysterious evil spirits known as the 'Shetani' emerge, hungry for your Faith.

As you interact with the custodians of each building—such as the Prioress in the Convent—learn snippets of Kongo culture and history, and the stories behind several saints from Africa and all over the world.

"Most video games that deal directly with the Christian faith typically fall into the realm of parodies, making them controversial, or use the faith as part of a larger strategy to dominate and subjugate, as is the case with 4X Strategy games," says Taiwo, creator of Sainthood. "I thought it would be a great idea to build a non-violent strategy game where the focus is on helping and serving others rather than conquering and controlling them."

REMINDER* Red Wednesday - In solidarity with persecuted Christians around the world - November 20, 2024

On November 20, Aid to the Church in Need Canada (ACN) will mark Red Wednesday, an international event during which churches and other important buildings will be illuminated in red. The colour is reminiscent of the blood of Christian martyrs, and gives AED the opportunity to point out that many Christians around the world are persecuted simply because of their faith.

"A new report, Persecuted and Forgotten? A report on Christians oppressed because of their faith sums up the situation of Christians in 18 countries. It shows that, in general, persecution of Christians is on the rise," points out Marie-Claude Lalonde, National Director of AED Canada. "In Pakistan, we're seeing an increase in religious content against minorities, including Christians, in school textbooks. In North Korea, it is estimated that between 50,000 and 70,000 Christians are imprisoned, strictly because they are Christians. Then, in Central America, Daniel Ortega's government in Nicaragua is firing red-hot bullets at the Church. As a result, members of the clergy and religious communities have been forced into exile, arbitrarily detained, Catholic media have been banned and teaching institutions have been closed."

For nearly a decade, the AED Canada office has been inviting Canadian Catholics to stand in solidarity with their brothers and sisters in the faith. "More and more people are learning about this human rights issue, and want to show their solidarity by organizing activities. It's very encouraging, and I already thank all those who will take the time to do something to mark Red Wednesday."

When this happens and God asks each of us, “What have you done with the gifts that I have given you?” How will you respond? The good news – it’s never too late to start living a grateful and generous lifestyle.
