Stewardship

June 9, 2024 - 10th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand." - Mark 3:24

Within your parish community, do your ministries collaborate with each other or do they compete against each other? Do your parish ministries work for the greater glory of God or do they work for the glory of the people running them? The primary goal of parish ministry is not to increase Mass attendance, increase the number of volunteers or increase offertory. The primary goal is to be one Body of Christ that helps people take one step closer to Jesus. If it's not doing that, it's not worth doing.

Video – A Discussion Leading Up to National Indigenous Peoples Day – With Daniel Bahuaud and Archbishop LeGatt

This month, ahead of the National Indigenous Peoples Month next month (and the day of the same name which will take place June 21st), Archbishop Albert converses with Daniel Bahuaud, the Diocesan Communications Coordinator. In view of this very important national day, it is necessary for us to take a moment to reflect on the paths of truth and reconciliation, and how these paths are drawing themselves in the context of our diocese and of our region's Indigenous peoples. We must also reflect on the relationships we hold with all Indigenous peoples of Turtle Island. As such, Archbishop Albert and Daniel reflect on the efforts and initiatives currently underway for healing, hearing, and reparation, in our archdiocese, calling each of us also to pray that we, too, would be agents for change in these same paths of reconciliation and peace. To learn more about these diocesan initiatives, Walking Together, visit the diocesan website by clicking here.

Marriage, Family & Life

Reflections for the separated & divorced

"I have come to heal the brokenhearted", said Jesus in the synagogue in Nazareth. This may be the first week after your separation, the first year or even ten years afterwards, but there are still wounds to bind. There will still be moments when, suddenly, you feel a twinge of sorrow, or bitterness or even a flash of anger. When that happens, remember Christ the Healer. He is the divine doctor that we can turn to and share those moments with. Who knows us better than he does, even better than we know ourselves? So, allow him to continue the process of healing your broken heart. Let him wrap his arms of love around you and comfort around you. And remember his promise to you that "Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted" (Matthew 5:4).
